2nd Stanza

→ Here in this 2nd stanza he speaks further praises her beauty and portrays that he loves her with deep passion.

→ His speaker is in deep love with her, because she is so beautiful. And he even adds that he will love her until the seas/oceans gone dry.

→ This shows his deep and passionate love towards her. Claims that her beauty is extraordinary that he can't describe form.

do fair not know my beauty how younger you beautiful So deep in love am I,
 And I will love Her still,
 my dear
 Till a' the seas gang dry
